TOR-008 | People & Culture Committee

PREAMBLE, SCOPE, & MANDATE

1. Per the mandate in the Bylaws and policies, the People & Culture Committee of the Board of the University of Toronto Students' Union (UTSU) will be responsible for reviewing the performance of Executive Committee members, and evaluate the overall health and function of the working relationship between the Board of Directors and Executive Committee.
2. The Committee is positioned to broadly provide advice on Board and Executive development, and can address specific matters pertaining to organizational people matters, as requested by the Board of Directors.
3. The People & Culture Committee shall have the power to remove any member of the board, including President and VP Finance and Operations, with the guidance and supervision of legal counsel.

MEMBERSHIP

4. The committee will be comprised of a minimum of three (3) Board Directors
5. Members of the Executive may not be members of the People & Culture Committee, though they may attend meetings.
6. The Director of People & Culture shall be an ex-officio member of the committee and shall chair committee meetings.

DUTIES & RESPONSIBILITIES

7. Provide members of the Executive Committee with feedback on their performance and suggestions for further development, as well as highlight areas of Executive success and merit;
8. Determine the method(s) through which feedback will be gathered and provided;
9. Provide a mechanism to discuss opportunities for improving the working relationship between the Board and the Executive Committee, in order to achieve the organization's goals and objectives;
10. In the execution of its responsibilities, apply a learning, strength-based and equity mindset to support each individual's growth journey.

DELIVERABLES

11. The committee shall ensure the following deliverable requirements are met in service to its mandate each year:
 - a. Respond to any Board-driven requests to provide feedback to the Executive team.

MEETING & DECISION MAKING PROCEDURES

12. The Committee shall meet as needed during a single Board term.
13. Meetings shall be called by the Chair in accordance with the Board agreed schedule. Additional meetings may be called by any member of the Committee if they consider it to be necessary.
14. The Committee shall meet in closed session unless determined otherwise by the committee or the Bylaws and Policies.

FIDUCIARY SCOPE

15. The application of this committee's fiduciary obligations includes, but is not limited to:
 - a. Duty of Care: Through fair, evidence-based feedback and development plans.
 - b. Duty of Confidentiality: By protecting sensitive personnel information shared during evaluations.
 - c. Duty of Loyalty: Ensuring all guidance and decisions advance the best interests of the UTSU membership rather than individual preferences or politics.

DELEGATION OF DELIVERABLES

16. If the committee fails to meet quorum for 2 consecutive meetings, the responsibility for completing the assigned deliverables shall be delegated to the Board of Directors, until such time that the committee can be reconvened.
