TOR-010 | First Year Council

PREAMBLE, SCOPE & MANDATE

1. The First Year Council (FYC) is an advisory body of the UTSU which focuses on the wellbeing and distinctive needs of full-time undergraduate students in their first year of study at the University of Toronto's St. George Campus.
2. The mandate of the UTSU's First Year Council is to represent current first-year University of Toronto students at the St. George Campus, and to ensure that their issues and interests are addressed by acting as a voice, and as a guiding and informative body of resources. To that end, the First Year Council shall advise the Management Committee and Executive Committee.
3. This policy establishes a First Year Council Reference Manual (Appendix A), which serves a similar functional purpose as terms of reference would for a committee.

MEMBERSHIP

4. Only first year students may be members of the FYC.
5. The FYC is administered by the President or their designate.
6. During their term, members of the FYC may not hold elected office on the UTSU Board.
7. During UTSU elections, members of the FYC must take a leave of absence if they wish to run for elected office.

FIRST YEAR COUNCIL REFERENCE MANUAL

8. The general procedures and practices of the First Year Council shall be codified in a document which acts as an extension of this policy, titled the First Year Council Reference Manual. The First Year Council shall have the ability to maintain this document independently, with the exception that all amendments must first be confirmed by the UTSU Board of Directors before they can take effect.
9. Any and all amendments to the following sections must first be submitted as amendment proposals to the UTSU Governance Committee before they can be confirmed by the UTSU Board of Directors:
 - a. FYC-001 Interpretation
 - b. FYC-002 Composition and Jurisdiction
 - c. FYC-005 Budget

- d. FYC-007 Removal of a Co-President
- 10. Any addition of new sections must also be first submitted to the UTSU Governance Committee. The FYC Governance Committee is empowered to seek assistance from the President and Vice-President Operations of the UTSU, as well as the Board of Directors, whenever concerns or questions arise.
- 11. The membership of the First Year Council shall be ratified at the September Board Meeting each year.
